

ANIMATIONTASTIC 2023

Meet our Artist Instructors!

Summer is on the horizon, and the PAM CUT team has assembled an exceptional roster of Artist Instructors for this summer's youth camps (June through August) inspired by ShadowMachine's dazzling animation artistry in Guillermo del Toro's Pinocchio. Each camp's daily schedule is designed by the Artist Instructor to make each day extra special and play to the strengths of the campers. Let's meet the Animationtastic 2023 PAM CUT Summer Camp Artist Instructors!

JACK KENT
ILLUSTRATED
STORYWORLD

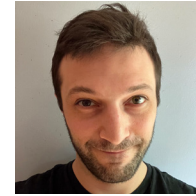

Growing up in Newport, Oregon, Jack would create little comics and doodles to share with his school buddies. Making people smile through art was all he wanted to do. His life goal was to become a cartoonist. Now, Jack is the brains (and ink) behind comics such as Sketchy People, Minus Tide, and Gulls. kentcomics.com

EVELYN JANE ROSS
TOONTUNES! //
ANIMATION AND MUSIC VIDEOS

Fresh off her time as a stop-motion animator on Guillermo del Toro's Pinocchio, Evelyn is back at ShadowMachine animating on an upcoming project. Luckily, Evelyn is able to take a week off in order to join PAM CUT as an Artist Instructor, combining her passion for stop motion with her love of music. evelynjaneross.com

ANDRÉS EDUARDO
FRAME BY FRAME //
INTRO TO STOP MOTION
ANIMATION

Before his work with ShadowMachine Studios' animation department on Guillermo del Toro's Pinocchio, Andrés directed the Annie-nominated student film Con Fuerza, which was inspired by his Venezuelan-American ancestry. Andrés is also the creator of the endlessly clever Blue Dinosaur webcomic. bluedinosaur.net

IAN LEVESQUE
GAME JAM! ANIMATION
FOR VIDEO GAME
DESIGN

This is Ian's second summer, joining us all the way from Virginia to share his passion for video game design. Ian's stop-motion game Floogen can be played on Steam and the Nintendo Switch. PC users can also play last year's Game Jam game, PAM the Inspirer! pam.to/PAMtheInspirer

EMMA RAE PROCHASKA
ALTERNATIVE
EVERYTHING
ANIMATION!

Emma assists PNCA's esteemed stop-motion animation courses led by last summer's stop motion instructor, Suzanne Moulton. She specializes in using found objects and items found in nature for her animations. Emma will also be teaching the second session of Frame by Frame // Intro to Stop Motion.

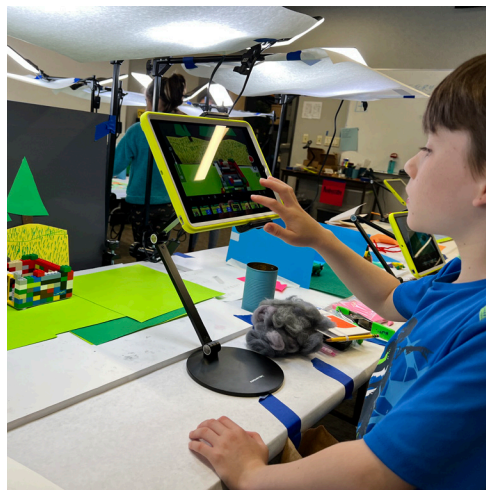

STEVEN CHRISTIAN
AUGMENTOPIA //
ANIMATION FOR AR

Steven, a former athlete, turned to art and mobile development after undergoing bilateral hip reconstructive surgery during college. He holds a Master of Arts in visual representation of social issues and now works in augmented reality to empower Black communities through creativity, art, and technology. He founded Iltopia Studios to inspire and empower people from his community and aims to reinvent himself as a visual artist. stuckonaneyeland.com

FRY
CREATURE CREATION

Fry is a visual strategist, illustrator, and community organizer who believes images are a powerful tool for creating positive change. With a strong foundational knowledge of design and teaching, she has held leadership roles in the education sector for the past five years. Her interest in visual work is founded on an appreciation for deeper levels of listening, cultivating new mindsets, and allowing space for people to be creative. kfrydraws.com
